Contents

No. 1

Notes on the Visibility Problem from an Observation Post and the Determination of the Dead Space of a Battery 1
Captain Christian Pierret, 7th French Field Artillery.

The Apache Gate Sector 7
Major Harrison Fuller, Field Artillery.

Field Artillery Units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps 17
Prepared by Colonel Waldo C. Potter, Field Artillery, U. S. Army Training Section, Office of the Chief of Field Artillery, U. S. Army.

The Dead Space Graph 36
Prepared in the Department of Reconnaissance, School of Fire for Field Artillery, by Major H. C. Jackson, F. A.

The Principles of Lateral Observation 43
Colonel Edmund L. Gruber, Field Artillery, U. S. Army.

The Balloon Observer 56
Major T. W. Wrenn (Field Artillery) Air Service Aeronautics.

Probabilities as Applied to Artillery Firing 63
Professor Joshua J. Tracey, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Yale University.

Terrain Boards 77
Prepared in the Department of Gunnery, School of Fire for Field Artillery, by Captain L. J. Fortier, F. A.

The Principles of Command in Defensive Battle 89
Translation of a German Document of September 29, 1918.

Current Field Artillery Notes 96
Equitation and Care of Horses.
Action of the Artillery in Battle.
Artillery Fire of Protection.
The Mil Scale.
Typical Examples of Battalion Telephone Nets Developed by the Introduction of Switchboards.

Editorials 112
Delenda Est Carthago.
Coöperation
"The Probable Error."
Field Artillery Reserve Corps.

Roll of Honor 125

Book Reviews 130

Index to Current Field Artillery Literature 134

380797

CONTENTS—Continued

No. 2

Notes on the Employment of Artillery and Machine Guns in Offensive Operation 137

The Employment of the Artillery—Fifth Army Corps—Argonne-Meuse Operations 148
By Lt. Colonel Shepherd.

"F.A.—Long Fuse Charge Zero" 183
By Lewis Reigner (First Lieutenant, Field Artillery).

The Employment of Relief Maps 192
Translated by Lieut. Colonel J. A. Crane, Field Artillery, U.S. Army.

A Proposed Scheme of Officers' Schools for Field Artillery 207

Discussions 218
The Field Artillery—Progress or Retrograde?
Are we Justified in Discarding "Pre-War" Methods of Training.
Notes on Personnel in Open Warfare.

Editorials 234
Vocational Training.
Thoughts on Reorganization. Our Problems?
The Journal as a Bi-monthly.

The Roll of Honor 241

Index to Current Field Artillery Literature 242

No. 3

Counter-Battery Work 245

Motor Transportation for Artillery 255
Lecture Delivered by Lieutenant-Colonel W. R. Conolly.

The Munitions Problem 276
By Colonel J. H. Burns.

Study of the Armament and Types of Artillery Matériel to be Assigned to a Field Army 289

Discussions 348
A Method for Open Warfare.

Current Field Artillery Notes 358
Confidential and Secret.

The Roll of Honor 368

Index to Current Field Artillery Literature 369

CONTENTS—Continued

No. 4

The Training of Artillery in France 373
By Major-General Ernest Hinds, U. S. A., Chief of Artillery, A. E. F.

Report of Observation Trip with English Army in England, France, Belgium and Germany, on Horsemastership, Care of Transportation and Equipment 391
By Major Paul C. Raborg, Cavalry, U. S. A.

Esprit de Corps 430
By 1st Lieutenant George Stewart, Jr., Infantry, U. S. A.

The Artillery Information Service 438
By Captains George A. Monagon and James Bruce, Field Artillery.

"Allez! Allez!" French Horses vs. American Drivers 448
By 1st Lieutenant Lewis E. Reigner, 11th Field Artillery.

A Day in an Advanced Report Centre of the Artillery Information Service 458
By Arthur B. Chilton, Formerly Captain, C. A. R. C.

Discussions 466
Artillery Training—Progress vs. Retrograde (Continued). By Roger D. Swaim, Formerly Major, 102nd Field Artillery.

Current Field Artillery Notes 469
Gas-s-s-s-s, by Major John Nash, 313th Field Artillery.
Damage to the Bore of Guns by the Formation of Pastilles.
The Artillery Horse's Prayer, by Captain de Condenbove, French Army.

Editorial 477
An Open Letter from Major-General Wm. J. Snow, Chief of Field Artillery, U. S. A.
"All Together—Let's Go!"
Get Together.

The Roll of Honor 486

Book Reviews 487

Index to Current Field Artillery Literature 488

No. 5

Notes on the Training and Handling of Divisional Artillery in France 489
By Brigadier-General George LeR. Irwin, U. S. Army.

Observations Made During an Endurance Test for Saddle Horses .. 508
By Colonel C. P. George (Field Artillery), General Staff.

Some Notes on Training of Emergency Officers 534
By Lieutenant-Colonel C. A. Baehr, formerly Third Field Artillery.

CONTENTS—Continued

Field Artillery in American Colleges 543
By Professor Raymond Walters, Registrar of Lehigh University.

With a Regiment of 75's in the Champagne-Marne Defensive 556
By Captain P. G. Black, 76th Field Artillery.

Extracts from the Report of the Chief of Field Artillery for the Fiscal Year 1919 575

Current Field Artillery Notes 603
The Christie Self-propelled Mount.
Aërial Conduct of Field Artillery Fire.

The United States Field Artillery Association—Annual Meeting 609

Editorial 613

The Roll of Honor 616

Index to Current Field Artillery Literature 617